Artist Alley table space information:

| Artist Table Space Type | Price | Badges Included | Allowable Additional Badges | Price of Additional Badges | Table Space Includes |
|-------------------------------|-------|-----------------|-----------------------------|----------------------------|---|
| 1 Standard Artist Table Space | $350 | 1(one) | 2(two) | $70 | 1(one) 6ft x 2.5ft table 1(one) tablecloth 2(two) chairs |
| 1 Premium Artist Table Space | $700 | 2(two) | 3(three) | $70 | 2(two) 6ft x 2.5ft tables 2(two) tablecloths 4(four) chairs |

Artist badges:

The Artist badges are convention badges. They carry the special permission to sell in the Artist Alley, to get in early for setup, and to stay late to pack up your displays. In addition, they allow badge holders to attend the convention in full. No separate attendee badges need to be purchased.

The primary Artist is responsible for the actions of their Artist alley helpers throughout the duration of the convention. Selling or giving away additional badges to outside parties is strictly prohibited, and doing so is a violation of your contract. Artist badges are solely for Artists, Artist helpers, and studio members. Badges must always be visible. Only those people wearing an Artist badge will be allowed to sit behind the table. Badges are not transferable.

Artists are responsible for lost or misplaced badges. Badges are the sole responsibility of the Artist. Lost badges will not be replaced or refunded. They will need to be repurchased at the current attendee's badge rate.

Artist Alley application process and tips:

- Application opening and closing dates will be announced on the official Katsucon website and social media channels. A direct link to the application will be provided at that time.
- KEI uses a juried selection process to ensure a high-quality experience for both artists and attendees. This is not first-come, first-served.
- Proxy/agented selling is not permitted.
- Please complete your application carefully and ensure all portfolio links are functional and accessible without login requirements.
- KEI utilizes Eventeny for the Katsucon Artist Alley application process.
- Include at least one photo of your table setup—either from a previous convention or a home setup.
- After the application period closes, the review process will take approximately 4 to 6 weeks.
- Accepted artists will receive an email notification followed by an invoice.

- Table sharing is not permitted.
- If you requested a Premium Artist table space and all Premium spaces are assigned before we get to your name, you will be offered a single table.
- Once all tables are filled, the remaining applicants will be notified of their waitlist status. The waitlist will remain active until one week before the convention.
- Each artist or studio is limited to one table space to purchase. Either a standard or premium table space.
- Table placement requests will be considered but are not guaranteed. Final placements and the list of accepted artists will be emailed closer to the event.
- Dual exhibiting is not permitted. You can apply for both halls if you qualify based on the rules of each hall but can only display/sell in one hall.
- Please notify us of any business or personal name changes as soon as possible. Legal name changes due to changes in marital status, transitioning, etc., will be accepted up to and during the convention.

Table set-up and display:

- All set-ups and/or displays must not interfere with neighboring tables on either side or behind the Artist's table.
- All setups and displays must remain clear of aisles at all times.
- All displays must be stable.
- Artist's display may not extend beyond the front or sides of the table and cannot extend more than 5 feet behind the table.
- Artist tables may not be moved without prior permission from Artist Alley staff. Moving the tables from their original positions may result in the Artist's removal from the Hall without a refund.
- If you want to use a clothing rack/display stand in addition to the Artist table, you must choose one or apply for a premium spot.
- Due to space limitations, only 2 individuals are allowed in each standard Artist table space and 4 individuals in a premium table space at any time.
- Your back may be to another Artist, so please be courteous.
- Artists are responsible for cleaning up their areas during and after the event. Food & drinks are permitted behind the table for personal consumption only and cannot be given or sold to attendees. However, if you make a mess, clean it up.
- Keep your area as neat as possible.
- Please be courteous with the use of bright display lights, strong scents, loud music, or anything that could be disruptive to your Artist neighbors.
- Do not take tables from the Gaylord transportation carts.
- All table signage should match the information that you registered with. If you put down on your application that you are "Studio A", but all your signs say that you are "Studio B", this will be seen as a table transfer. Signage that does not match your approved application must be removed.

Number of Spaces:

A single Artist or studio is allowed a maximum of 1(one) Artist Alley space consisting of either a standard or premium table space. The Artist Alley is intended to showcase many Artists; therefore, any violation of this policy will be grounds for immediate expulsion from the Artist Alley. It will also result in the Artist being banned from participating in the Katsucon Artist Alley in the future.

A group of Artists/studio:

All individuals working together on a single project, or groups of projects, are considered one Artist group/studio. For example: a group of Artists who collaborated to make their art are counted as a studio. If applying as a studio, only the art pieces that are a collaborative effort can be displayed. If applying as a studio, any individual applications will be considered duplicated and deleted. All studio members must be present to sell.

Table sharing between individual Artists is not allowed in the Katsucon Artist alley. If applying as a studio, only the art pieces collaborated on can be displayed. Only 1 Artist/studio can be registered per table.

Unclaimed AA tables:

Any tables not claimed by 5 pm on Friday night will be considered a No-Show table and made available for distribution to lottery winners. No credit or refund will be issued for No-Shows. Please contact the Artist Alley Coordinators in the event of delayed arrival. You can contact us at: artistalley@katsucon.org

1. Registration for the lottery starts when the hall opens on Friday. We will need your name, your company name, a website or portfolio address, and your mobile phone number where you can be reached.
2. You must be a registered attendee with Katsucon to be eligible to enter the lottery.
3. We will randomly select someone from the list via a raffle.
4. One entry per Artist. If we find duplicates, ALL your entries will be removed.
5. Artists must be present at the Artist Alley staff table for the lottery drawing at 5 pm on Friday.
6. You must be present, in person, on site to enter the lottery and to claim your table. You must complete payment for the table. Your attendee badge will be swapped for an Artist badge. You will need your tax info and fill out an Affidavit for the Maryland Comptroller.
7. We will draw raffle tickets until all open table spaces are filled.
8. You will need to have your art on site and set up by business open on Saturday morning. That includes product, helper, and any relevant tax information.
9. By applying to the lottery, you agree that you have read the Katsucon Artist Alley Info Packet and agree to abide by its terms.
10. Any Katsucon Artist Alley lottery winner must purchase their table and any extra badge(s) at full price. A single table is $350; it comes with 1 badge, and 1 extra badge may be purchased for $70. Premium space (2 tables in a corner shape) is $700 and comes with 2 badges. Two extra badges may be purchased for $70 each.

Additional notes:

- Any egregious violations, like use of trademarked words and images (the “S” for Superman, actual Pokémon/Nintendo logo, and the like), will be asked once to remove the offending item(s). The second time Katsucon Artist Alley staff see the offending item(s), the Artist will be ejected from the Katsucon Artist Alley and the convention. This especially includes “garage sales” and bootlegging. No refunds will be issued if ejected from the event by either Katsucon or GNRCC.
- You are NOT allowed to copy, trace or in any way reproduce (either by hand or machine) an existing piece of art and sell it as your own. This includes any direct traces of existing art, sprites, and logos that you do not own. Ex: logos and pixel sprites ripped directly from source material.
- It must be an original design, drawn in the Artist's own style. Decisions of Katsucon Artist Alley staff are final.
- A.I. generated ‘art’ is not permitted.
- 3-d prints, wood burnings/carvings, etchings, etc., must be from the Artist's original work.
- Photo bashing and collaging of official artwork and logos is not permitted.
- Katsucon Artist Alley staff may prohibit the sale of any item at any time, for any reason. Katsucon Artist Alley staff has the final word on whether something is unacceptable or not, and you will be asked to remove anything deemed such. Failure to comply and/or repeat offenses may result in your expulsion from the convention without a refund.
- Artist Alley table space payments are not refundable. If you need to cancel, Katsucon will not be issuing any refunds.
- Hawking, yelling, or aggressive motioning to draw attention to your table is prohibited.
- All Artists are expected to show respect to all staff, volunteers, attendees, and fellow Artists throughout the convention.
- Artists have the right to ask loiterers to move on if they are blocking your table, so long as you do it in a non-threatening manner. Katsucon Artist Alley staff are available to help disperse loiterers that block table access, aisle access, or impede traffic flow.
- Tables are non-transferable and may not be resold to a third party.
- Artists must represent the business and sell the art items for which they were approved. If you produce art under different names, only the business/Artist's name and the art on the approved application can be displayed and sold. If found in violation of this rule, you will be removed from the Artist Alley.

Prohibited Goods:

- The following items are also prohibited from sale within the Artist Alley:
- Unlicensed, “Knockoff,” or “bootleg” merchandise of any kind is forbidden and grounds for immediate expulsion. These include, but not limited to, videos recorded on homemade DVDs; pirated copies of any titles that have been released commercially in the United States, Japan, or elsewhere; titles taped off the air in Japan; and any fan-subs. Also forbidden: any unlicensed reproductions of any products released by an American company. Officially licensed merch can only be sold in the Vendor Hall.

- Imported merchandise or legitimate US products. This includes, but is not limited to wall scrolls, sharpies, art supplies, duct tape, glow sticks, etc. This also includes resale of used or unwanted anime, manga, and related Japanese merchandise. There will be no resale of items in Artist Alley. This is known as “garage sales”.
- Henna tattoos, face and body painting, and other forms of art expression on another person's body are strictly prohibited.
- Sales of weapons are prohibited in Artist Alley. Swords, guns, and any projectile items are not allowed.
- NO industrial machines, aerosol cans, airbrushes, wood burners, etchers, or any other supplies or equipment that could be potentially harmful, dangerous or noisy.

Soaps, perfumes, oils, and cosmetics:

If your product meets the regulatory definition of soap, it's regulated by the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC).

- If it's cosmetics, it's regulated by the FDA. Neither the product nor its ingredients need approval by the FDA, except for any color additives it contains. It is your responsibility to make sure your product is safe for consumers when it is used as intended, and to make sure it is properly labeled.
- If it's a drug (like caffeinated soap), it's regulated by the FDA. It must comply with the regulations (called “monographs”) for certain categories of non-prescription drugs or requirements for new drug approval or. You will need to register your firm and list your products with the FDA. We will ask for more details if we accept your application. Please refer to some of the FDA documentation to see what you need, found at: <https://www.fda.gov/cosmetics/productsingredients/products/ucm115449.htm>

Food:

Due to corkage laws and convention policy, no consumable food, snacks or beverages are allowed for redistribution to attendees, either by sale or for free, and personal food eaten at the table must be kept behind the table. That includes free bowls of candy for attendees. Please refer to the GNRCC Policy.

Guidelines for Artwork:

The Artist bears all responsibility and risk for the items brought for sale at Katsucon. Any questions regarding this policy will be resolved by the Artist Alley Coordinators, in consultation with Katsucon Leadership when needed. If a piece of art appears to be very similar to a licensed, copyrighted, etc. piece of art, the Artist may be asked to remove it from display and sale at the discretion of the Artist Alley Coordinators. The Artist Alley Coordinator's decision is final.

Adult Materials Policy:

Artist Alley Info Pack

Katsucon 2026
February 13-15
Gaylord National Resort
& Convention Center
National Harbor MD

Katsucon is a family friendly convention. Therefore, Katsucon asks that all Artists in the Artist Alley, please keep this in mind when setting up. The acceptability of displays of adult material is at the sole discretion of the Artist Alley Coordinators. Any materials which are sexually explicit, extremely graphically violent, or otherwise unsuitable for children must be displayed in a manner that keeps minors from seeing them.

Customers must be of legal age (18) to view/purchase any material inappropriate for minors. If any of these materials are found left out in the open, or the Artist Alley Staff receives complaints, the Artist will be reminded about the adult materials policy ONCE. If any Artist sells inappropriate materials to minors, they will be removed from the Artist Alley and the convention. The Artist may also be subject to legal action.

Proxy/Agented Sales:

Proxy/Agented sales are not permitted in the Katsucon Artist Alley.

A proxy/agent is someone other than the original Artist, who sells the art on the Artist's behalf when the Artist is not in attendance at Katsucon. Artists must be present at the convention to sell their work.

Dual Exhibiting:

Selling in both the Artist Alley and Dealers Room is strictly prohibited. If you are found exhibiting in both areas, at the same time, you will be evicted from both immediately and may be banned from exhibiting for future years. No refunds will be issued if ejected from the event by either Katsucon or GNRCC.

This does not include the Art Show inside the Artist Alley. Joining the Art Show is actively encouraged. Katsucon encourages all Artists, as well as all attendees, to participate in the Art Show.

Payment:

In order to avoid any confusion, payment information will be provided directly to Artists whose applications have been approved. For your protection, no table space payments will be accepted without prior approval.

Cancellation:

Cancellation requests must be received in writing or by email within thirty (30) days prior to the convention. No refunds. All sales are final. Send cancellation requests to artistalley@katsucon.org or to our mailing address below:

Katsucon Entertainment, Inc.
4094 Majestic Lane #247
Fairfax, VA 22033

Security:

The doors will be locked when the hall is closed. Each Artist is solely and fully responsible for his or her own materials. All property of the Artist is understood to remain in the Artist's care, custody, and control in transit to or from or within the confines of the Artist Alley. Katsucon is not responsible for losses due to theft, damage, fire, or other causes.

General Policy:

In addition to the rules herein, all other convention and hotel rules remain in effect. All local, county, state, and federal laws are also in effect. Violators will be ejected from the convention without refund and turned over to the proper authorities.

ID Policy:

All Artists must show a government-issued photo ID to check in at the Artist Alley. If an Artist is not able to produce a valid ID at check in, their table(s) will be held until one hour before opening on Saturday, at which point the table(s) will be considered unclaimed and open for sale on a first come, first served basis. Accepted forms of ID include: A state driver's license, state-issued identification card, a passport, school IDs, or military ID. The name on the ID must match the name given on the table application.

Age Policy:

Any Artist not eighteen years old by February 1st, the year of the convention, must have an adult sign the contract on their behalf. The adult who co-signs the contract must be present to check-in for a table and accept responsibility for any failure of the under-aged Artist to comply with all convention policies and applicable laws. In addition, an adult must always be present at the table.

Badges:

Katsucon convention badges must be worn VISIBLY at all times while in any of the convention areas, including Artist Alley. Only people with Katsucon Artist badges will be allowed behind tables within the Artist Alley.

Structures:

Any structure brought to display artwork must be of sound construction and resist toppling when pushed from any angle. If any structure falls, appears unstable, or begins to droop or sag, the Artist to whom it belongs will be asked to remove it by the Artist Alley Staff. In addition, all displays must reside within the confines of your area. Artist's display may not extend beyond the front or sides of the table and cannot extend more than 3 feet behind the table. Displays behind your table must not impede other Artist's areas nor disrupt traffic flow in case of emergency. This includes people who are standing in front of your table (or other tables), handing out flyers. Entrance/Exits into the islands may NOT be blocked in any way.

Noise:

Music is permissible, but the volume is to be kept low. Please respect the wishes of those around you. Katsucon reserves the right to require any Artist to turn down or off any audio devices deemed to be interfering with or bothering other Artists or attendees at the convention. The same applies to vocal appeals intended to entice people to come to your table or buy merchandise.

Ambiance:

Things like bubble machines, smoke machines, fog machines, incense, open flame, and confetti are prohibited by the convention space and Katsucon Artist Alley. Heavy perfumes (including complaint-worthy body odor) are also prohibited.

Giveaways:

Any Artist who wishes to have a giveaway or prize distribution of any kind must contact the Katsucon Artist Alley Staff via email before the convention for approval. No requests for giveaways, etc. will be granted at the convention. This includes all types of stamp and gift rallies.

Raffles:

Maryland state law says that a raffle can only be held either by a civic organization (such as a Fire Department), or by a charitable organization (who must receive the entire proceeds). An Artist CANNOT keep the proceeds from a raffle. Also, to hold a raffle in Prince George's County, the organization holding the raffle must first apply for a permit from the County. Therefore, no raffles will be allowed in Artist Alley, unless you can prove that those circumstances have been met. Any Artist holding an unauthorized raffle will be removed from the Artist Alley and convention.

Photography:

Photography and video recording are NOT permitted within the Artist Alley. No photography or camera-phone use will be permitted AT ALL in the Art Show, which will be located within the Artist Alley, so be aware of this rule when entering the Art Show.

Signs:

Signage within the Artist Alley or Gaylord Property will not to be posted on any walls. Please see the Gaylord Policies section for more details.

Sales outside Artist Alley:

Selling items from your hotel room or anywhere outside the Katsucon Artist Alley is strictly prohibited under hotel policy. Refer to the GNRCC Policy for full details. Anyone suspected of unauthorized sales may be reported to the hotel and face eviction. Additionally, Katsucon Artist Alley management reserves the right to remove individuals from the Artist Alley and revoke badges if sales occur outside the designated area.

Harassment:

Katsucon does not tolerate harassment of any kind, be it based on race, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental ability or disability, religion, sexual orientation, height, weight, planet of origin, or any other physical or civilized beliefs. This goes for all attendees, guests, panelists, staff, and/or hotel employees. Harassment is defined as derogatory comments, stalking, aggressive behavior, unnecessary intentional physical blocking of others, or altercations. If you believe you have been a victim of harassment, please find Artist Alley staff as soon as it occurs. Please present details calmly and concisely. If you feel your safety is at risk, we want to know about it and stop it before it affects more people. If you feel our staff has not been able to meet your needs, or if you have further concerns, please use the service: Page a Chair.

Harassment includes advocating for, or encouraging, any of the above behavior.

In the event you feel you are being harassed, please contact the Artist Alley staff immediately.

Substance Use:

Smoking (including vaping, cigars, and pipes), use of alcohol, and/or use of illegal drugs while in the Artist Alley is not permitted. Any violation of this may result in expulsion from the GNRCC.

Behavior:

No running, screaming, yelling, horseplay or grievous use of obscene language will be tolerated. That includes those who have children behind their table. It is expected that, as with any other area of the convention, all Artists will be courteous and polite to each other, the staff, and other members. Conduct of an offending manner directed to an Artist, Host Facility personnel, Katsucon Artist Alley personnel, or any other person(s) will not be tolerated.

Permitted Goods:

The following is a sample list of items that may be sold. In addition to unique individual hand-made items and commissioned works, Artists may offer a wide array of products including but not limited to: Stickers, Items with an adhesive feature, Posters, Prints, Paintings, Bookmarks, Drawings, Pins/buttons, Comics/Manga, doujinshi, zines, Calendars, CD's, Books, T-Shirts and other clothing, Bags, Cards, Games, Etched glass, Ears/tails, Jewelry, Costumes, Plushies, Props, Origami, etc.

Fanart, Copyrighted and Trademarked Materials:

The Artist bears all responsibility and risk for the items brought for sale at Katsucon. Any questions regarding these policies will be resolved by the Artist Alley staff, in consultation with Katsucon's Leadership when needed. The Katsucon's Leadership in conjunction with the Artist Alley staff will make the final decision. Katsucon Artist Alley staff decisions regarding the acceptability of items are final, and you will be asked to remove anything deemed unacceptable.

Katsucon Artist Alley and Katsucon staff are NOT currently authorized agents of any company body to enforce copyright on their behalf. Any company that requires removal of perceived copyright or trademark violations will be directed to the Artist themselves. No staff or Katsucon member is a legal professional qualified to enforce, for any person or company, what is "fair use" under the legal concepts such as, but not limited to, parody, homage, and derivative work. Please don't ask us.

Katsucon Artist Alley Staff will not settle trade disputes between Artists. That must be solved between your own legal teams. We will only follow state or federal law (i.e., bootlegging, restraining orders, LEO intervention, etc.) as required by those laws.

Unless specifically stated otherwise, Katsucon is not an enforcement agent of any media company or copyright holder. The only parties who can make valid, actionable copyright violation complaints are the copyright holders themselves, and/or their legally empowered agents.

Intellectual property:

Katsucon's title, logo, and mascots are trademarks of Katsucon Entertainment Inc. No likenesses thereof are permitted to be sold in the Artist Alley except by representatives of KEI.

Liability:

KEI shall not be liable for failure to fulfil its obligations under this contract because of strikes, riots or any other cause of any kind whatsoever not within the control of Katsucon. Anyone visiting, viewing or otherwise participating at an Artist's table is deemed to be the invitee or licensee of the Artist, rather than the invitee or licensee of Katsucon. Katsucon shall not be liable for any injury whatsoever to the property of the Artist or the persons conducting or otherwise participating in the conduct of the exhibit or the invitees or guests of the Artist, and the Artist hereby indemnifies Katsucon for all such injuries and claims. Katsucon shall not be liable for the nature of any merchandise being sold by the Artist, and the Artist hereby indemnifies Katsucon for all merchandise claims.

The Artist understands that neither KEI, the Katsucon convention nor GNRCC maintains insurance covering the Artist's property. KEI nor any of their representatives will be held responsible for any injury, loss or damage that may occur to the Artist or to the Artist's associates or property from any cause whatsoever. It is the sole responsibility of the Artist to obtain, at their own expense, adequate insurance against injury, loss, or damage. The Artist should provide proof of said insurance to Katsucon leadership prior to the event.

There is no other agreement or warranty between the Artist and KEI except as set forth in this document. The rights of KEI under this contract shall not be deemed waived unless specifically stated in writing and signed by an authorized officer of KEI. Any action which KEI or the Artist may bring against another, based upon or in any way relating to this Contract or its performance, shall be brought in Federal or State court located within the State of Maryland. KEI and the Artist hereby waive all questions of personal jurisdiction or venue in order to give effect to this provision.

Indemnification:

The Artist and KEI, to the extent permitted by law, agree to defend and indemnify the other, and its officers, directors, agents, and employees, of and from all claims, demands, or suits for intellectual property, personal injury or property damage, including costs and attorney fees, in any way arising out of or related to third party claims based on the indemnifying party's negligent acts or omissions in connection with the Event, except to the extent of the negligence of the indemnified party.

Severability:

Should any provision of this document be rendered or declared invalid by reason of any existing or subsequently enacted legislation or by any decree by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidation of such part or portion of this document shall not invalidate the remaining portions, and they shall remain in full force and effect. Anyone found to have misrepresented their information during the application process may be denied a table and/or removed from their table without a refund. Further, they may not be permitted to reapply to the Artist Alley in the future at the discretion of the Artist Alley Coordinators and the Con Chair.

As an Artist, by paying to participate in the Katsucon Artist Alley, you expressly acknowledge that you have read the Katsucon Artist Alley Info Packet and the Katsucon Code of Conduct and understand the rights, obligations, terms, and conditions set forth herein for the usage of the Katsucon Artist Alley at Katsucon and hereby agree to be bound and comply with the terms. You further acknowledge that failure to abide by the terms for Katsucon Artist Alley may result in loss of all privileges without recourse or refund. No verbal agreements will be honored.

Artists MUST comply with convention policy as well as city and state laws. Any violation of this may result in expulsion of the Event Space.

Load-in/load-out, loading dock, parking:

Artists will be able to load-in from the main entrance, side entrance (from parking garage) and loading dock.

You cannot leave your vehicle parked in those areas. Please refer to the GNRCC Policy.

Do not start setting up until your vehicle has moved. (NOTE: Areas to offload your vehicles are subject to change at any time. Information will be relayed from Katsucon Artist Alley Department accordingly.)

Artists will be able to use the same entrances and loading dock for load-out.

To get to the loading dock as you approach National Harbor, do NOT turn onto Waterfront St, Fleet St or St George Blvd. Keep going straight and the road will lead directly to the loading docks. You will pass an open-air parking lot and the GNRCC parking garage along the way as you approach the dock.

There is a staging area next to the dock where you can wait in your vehicle for an open bay from which to unload. After unloading, you cannot park in the staging area. You must move your vehicle to one of the parking areas. All parking areas in National Harbor, as well as GNRCC, charge a fee.

There is a ramp at the end of the dock for loading in from the street level. To help get everyone's vehicles in and out as quickly and efficiently as possible, please unload your vehicle completely first, then move your vehicle, then start your setup. And for load-out, please pack up your belongings completely before moving your vehicle to the loading dock.

You must follow directions for loading in and loading out at the dock to ensure safety and smooth loading.

Your table must be completely packed up and your area clean before you or your helper can get in line to use the loading dock.

Electric, Internet, Telephone, Shipping/Storage Services:

Electrical, internet, telephone, shipping/storage service are available from the GNRCC for a fee (<https://gaylordnational.boomerecommerce.com>). Electrical, internet, telephone, shipping/storage service and any other special requests are the Artist's financial responsibility. KEI has no control over services provided by the Gaylord, and all interactions are to be with the Gaylord directly.

Maryland State Sales Tax ID Information:

Maryland State Law requires that all Exhibitors charge 6% state sales tax separate from the amount of the sale. Even if you are from another state, you must charge your customers Maryland tax for sales made in Maryland. Most merchandise sold at the convention is subject to Maryland sales tax. There are a few things that are not taxable in Maryland. If you have a question about whether something is taxable, please consult your tax advisor.

Artists are required to receive a state Tax ID from the Comptroller of Maryland before the convention, and to send in the collected sales tax within 30 days following the convention. Prior to the convention, Katsucon Event Hall Leadership will forward a list of all registered Artists to the Maryland Comptroller's office. The Comptroller will then send out a Temporary Sales and Use Tax license by email or mail to each Artist on the list. Artists with current Maryland Tax IDs may use their current numbers; just write your Maryland Trader's Tax License number on the temporary license and send it back to the Comptroller.

If you have any questions about Maryland State Sales Tax, contact the Maryland State Comptroller's Office at (410) 767-1543, or by mail at the following address:

Comptroller of Maryland
State License Bureau
P.O. 2397
Annapolis MD 21404-2397

A copy of your tax license (or a copy of a Trader's License) must be presented upon your arrival at the Katsucon AA sign-in table before you can be issued your table space and badges. NO ARTIST WILL BE PERMITTED TO SET UP WITHOUT A MARYLAND SALES TAX LICENSE.

GNRCC policies:

1. Decorations, signs, banners, etc. may not be taped, nailed, tacked, stapled, or otherwise fastened to ceilings, walls, painted surfaces, or columns in the GNRCC.
2. No holes may be drilled, cored, or punched in the facility.
3. No sample of food and/or beverage products may be distributed by Exhibitors.
4. Parking in the loading dock, service drives, and the GNRCC employees' parking area is prohibited, except for loading and unloading. Violators will be towed at their own expense and risk.
5. All freight and exhibit material must enter the facility through designated loading docks. In no case should passenger elevators, escalators, or public lobbies be used for this purpose.
6. All fire, safety, and building regulations must be strictly followed. Particular attention should be paid to the prohibitions against propane, acetylene, and other flammable materials.
7. Exhibitors are responsible for removing all materials at the end of the show. The booth area must be cleaned.
8. The GNRCC prohibits the use of normal tape on their walls and floors. No tape may be used on painted or portable walls. Tape used on the floor of the Exhibit Halls must be low residue carpet tape or low residue safety tape. Accepted brands of tape are Polyken 105C, Renfrew #147, Asiachem SST-736 or approved equivalent. It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to remove ALL tapes from the floor at the end of the event.
9. If an emergency evacuation is required, all exhibitors must exit the area immediately and without argument. After an all-clear is issued, Artists will be readmitted first so that they may return to their booths prior to Artist Alley reopening.
10. Artists are responsible for removing all materials from their table space at the end of the show.
